Our Great Clearance Sale of Hurt and Handled Books and Publishers' Remainders

This is a choice lot of Books—books from our own stock and books from our publishers, and no matter what the title or the price, the value is one of exceeding merit.

These Books are arranged on counters and tables for convenient and easy choosing—nearly half of the F street front of the Book Store is thus given over to this display.

As the quantity is strictly limited to a very few of a title, an early call is certainly desirable if one would avoid disappointment.

There are literally hundreds of Good Novels, and Histories and Biographies which we have no room to enumerate, but which are here at

Twenty-Five Cents the Copy

But there are hundreds of other Books at other prices, and all of them choice and desirable. It is a genuine Book Sale that you should patronize.

IN OUR JANUARY LINEN SALE:

A Special Showing of the Celebrated Flemish Linens

These were selected and made up for us, according to our buyer's specifications, before the war commenced. They were held in Holland for a long time for various reasons due to the conditions brought about by the war, and were recently dispatched to us, and have been reserved for this sale.

The assortment consists of

Table Cloths, Napkins, Tea Napkins, Bed Linens and Round-thread Dress Linens, in all widths—36, 40, 42, 45, 50, 54 inches; Linen Sheeting in 72 and 90 inch widths.

There is no better Linen produced in Flanders than this, and being bought so long ago the values are remarkable, to say the least.

Fine Irish Table Damask.

These are pure flax, and of good quality and weight; beautiful patterns and lustrous finish.
70-inch width, in five good designs, $1.10 yard.
Better quality, in many patterns, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 yard.
